HOLMES IS WEAKENING.

Greatly Changed Since His Interview with His Latest "Wife."

BLOODY CLOTHING IN CHICAGO.

It Is Unearthed in the Police Search of the House Formerly Occupied by Holmes. Lawyer Howe Accused of Complicity in Murder.

PHILADELPHIA, July 24.—The latest developments in the case of H. H. Holmes, the swindler and supposed murderer, are as follows: His alleged wife will forsake him; Jeptha D Howe, the St. Louis attorney, now indicted for conspiracy with Holmes, may be charged with complicity in the murder of Alice Pitezel: District Attorney Graham announces that there is very little likelihood of finding the body of missing Howard Pitezel in Detroit and the Chicago authorities may ask for requisition to take Holmes to Chicago to have him tried on the charge of murdering Miss Gertrude Conner, a typewriter employed by the swindler when he conducted a drug store in that city.

It was said yesterday that for the first time since his incarceration Holmes is completely broken in spirit. Up till the conference on Monday with his alleged wife and the district attorney the prisoner had every confidence that the woman with whom he is said to have allied himself in Franklin, Ind., would support him in his trouble.

This hope, which seems to have been one of Holmes' principal mainstays since he was placed behind the Moyamensing bars, seems to have been dispelled. On his way to the jail, after the consultation with the authorities and "Mrs." Holmes, the doomed man completely broke down. His step was more unsteady than ever before.

The pallid countenance, the twitching of the muscles and the almost choking intonations of the arch conspirator as he endeavored to speak to the guards all told plainly that he was suffering keenly from the change in his wife's demeanor towards him.

"They may all go back on me if they please," said the prisoner, "but"—. Here a choking sensation proved an impediment to a further expression of his feelings. He brushed his eyes with his coat sleeve, and, for the first time, the tear drops were seen to fall from the prisoner's eyes. Holmes is weakening.

Thomas A. Fahey, counsel for Mrs. Pitezel, has received a letter from Mrs. Pitezel's father, who lives in Galva, Ills. The woman's father says he fears his daughter may succumb to the terrible ordeal through which she is now going. He believes that Holmes will be found guilty, and intimates there are others as guilty of the murder of his grandchildren as Holmes. He openly accuses Howe, the St. Louis attorney.

Private Detective Hodgins was employed in the case, and in a very short time found that Holmes and the woman who then passed as his wife stayed one day at the Walker House and several days at the Palmer House in October last. Also five children had been kept at the Albion hotel until Oct. 25, and that on the latter date Mrs. Pitezel, with her baby and her eldest daughter, were at the Union House, in this city, and that all the parties, with the exception of Nellie and Alice Pitezel, left Toronto on that date. This information was supplied to Mr. Fouse on Dec. 22, and great surprise is expressed here that no immediate action was taken by the Philadelphia authorities.

The Toronto detective had no intimation that a murder had been committed on Canadian soil. When Detective Geyer came to Toronto he studied Detective Hodgins' report. The morning after his arrival the press appealed to those who had let houses to parties who had occupied them only a short time to communicate with the police. The man Rives, of 18 St. Vincent street, read this in the morning papers and promptly reported to Inspector Hall, of No. 2 division, what he afterwards told at the inquest. In this way, and during the absence of Detective Geyer on a visit to Niagara Falls, the bodies were located.

A TORONTO REVELATION.

Philadelphia Police Officials Charged with Dereliction of Duty.

TORONTO, July 24.—The local authorities have been put in possession of a number of letters and documents which show that early in December last the police of Philadelphia were aware that Holmes made away with the three Pitezel children. The letters show that on Dec. 15 President Fouse, of the Fidelity Mutual association, wrote to Dr. John Ferguson, of the Excelsior Life Insurance company, this city, asking him to make inquiries with a view to finding out whether or not Holmes, with three children, had come to Toronto.

BLOODY CLOTHING UNEARTHED.

Janitor Pat Quinlan Now Charged with Howard Pitezel's Murder.

CHICAGO, July 24.—During the police examination of the house of H. H. Holmes yesterday a portion of a woman's wrapper, torn and stained, was found. The gown was of dark goods with white trimming, and on the white cloth were found several dark spots resembling either iron rust or blood stains. The nature of the stains could not be determined, and the dress was sent to police headquarters, where an analysis will be made. The discovery was made while workmen were digging near one of the walls in the basement. Detectives Norton and Fitzpatrick also found an undergarment believed to have belonged to Minnie Williams. A physician declared the stains on this garment to be undoubtedly blood stains.

Mrs. Carrie Pitezel has made the direct statement that H. H. Holmes has accused Pat Quinlan, the present janitor of the Holmes castle, Sixty-third and Wallace streets, with the murder of Howard Pitezel, her son. This is the boy whom Detective Geyer is now looking for in Detroit. Quinlan has made so many contradictory statements that his arrest is momentarily expected. Accusations against Holmes, however, are piling up, and now it is promised that warrants charging him with the murder of the Williams sisters will also be sworn out.

The Slot Machines Take the Pennies.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—It is stated at the treasury department that the present demand for one cent pieces is unprecedented, and to meet the demand considerable shipments have been made from the sub-treasuries, where there is an over supply. The very general use of penny slot machines throughout the country is believed to be the cause of the scarcity.

Boarders Robbed the House.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 24.—During the absence of John Rancavage and wife, of Minersville, who were carriage riding, two boarders who were left in charge of the house ransacked the bureaus and closets, and succeeded in finding $1,000, which they stole, and cleared out.

Tired of the Struggle.

LANCASTER, Pa., July 24.—An unknown man, apparently a tramp, about 35 years old and poorly dressed, threw himself in front of a moving freight train at Mill Creek station, on the Pennsylvania railroad, last night, and was instantly killed.

THE INDIANS MASSING.

Settlers Preparing to Make an Assault on the Redskins.

MARKET LAKE, Idaho, July 24.—Captain Teeters, Indian agent at Fort Hall, Idaho, reservation, came in yesterday from the Jackson Hole country, and reports everything quiet and few if any Indians in the county. Captain Teeters, however, was followed by a courier from the settlers with a dispatch to Governor Richards which tells another story. The courier, Fred White, reports that the Indians have been joined by a large number of Lembi and Ute Indians, and that they have every pass in Jackson's Hole guarded. Scouts from the settlers say the Indians are massing in large numbers, and will no doubt offer a fight.

A prospector named Smith was ambushed by Indians, and was wounded in the breast. He claimed to have cleaned out the band, but scouts sent to confirm it say they found evidences of only one Indian being wounded.

The settlers have brought their women and children to Wilford, and intend to go Indian hunting, and not wait for the redskins to attack them.

This trouble will not interfere with travel to the Yellowstone park, as by the way of Beaver canyon there is no danger of meeting the Indians. Many sensational reports have been sent out, but there has been no fighting. The Indians may yet be persuaded to return to their reservations without any more trouble.

The "Dryer" New York.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The city vigilance committee having published the statement that on last Sunday fully 50 per cent. of the saloons in this city did business free from police interference, Commissioner Roosevelt said today that the excise law was being vigorously enforced. Police Captain Westervelt, in whose district it was said the law was more openly disregarded than elsewhere in the city, said that his district was as dry as it was possible to make it last Sunday, but that he would eventually have it drier. He denied absolutely that 50 per cent. of the saloon keepers did business in the precinct last Sunday.

Affairs at Colon Peaceable.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Further brief advices concerning the affairs at Colon have been received by the state department. They came in a dispatch from Consul General Victor Vifquain, at Panama, Colombia, and said that the troubles were a labor strike, which so far had been of a peaceable character. This statement leads the officials of the department to believe that the troubles will not be of such a serious nature as earlier dispatches indicated might be the case. The navy department has not as yet dispached a vessel to Panama.

Shot by His Father-in-Law.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., July 24.—Charles H. Gurney was waylaid and shot in the back and probably fatally injured by his father-in-law, B. B. Turner, near this place. Mrs. Gurney is suing for divorce, and her allegation against her husband so maddened her aged father that he determined to kill Gurney. Mrs. Gurney, though an applicant for divorce, is nursing her wounded husband.

Mrs. Farrall Again Arrested.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Mrs. Belle Farrall, recently acquitted of the charge of poisoning her husband, after a long trial at La Plata, Md., was arrested by Washington police charged with larceny by her former alleged lover, Eugene Hall. Hall claims she took from him a gold ring valued at $10. The charge was nolle prossed.

Storm Damage in Ohio.

CINCINNATI, July 24.—A special from Blue Ash, O., says the village of Breeon was badly damaged by a cloudburst. Cattle and sheep were drowned, many buildings were damaged, and several houses and barns totally destroyed. Damages to crops are reported from different counties in the southern part of the state.

Women Prevent a Lynching.

GALLIPOLIS, O., July 24.—David Atkins was strung up by the neck in Maple Shade Monday night, and would have died if some women had not cut him down. There was a general riot, and revolvers and knives were brought into play. Later in the night the houses of several residents were stoned.

Letter Carriers to be Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Assistant Postmaster General Jones said yesterday that he did not think that any of the thirty-nine Philadelphia letter carriers against whom charges were made would escape dismissal. A considerable majority of those reported for dismissal are Democrats.

Negro Railroad Hands to be Dismissed.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 24.—It is reported here that an order had been issued by the Louisville and Nashville railroad authorities to displace all negro firemen and brakemen running between Montgomery and Louisville, to take effect Aug. 1.

Atlantic's Church Robber Caught.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 24.—The burglar who has been looting churches in the city for some time past was arrested at the Casino yesterday. He gives his name as Herchtseler, and confessed to the church robberies.

A CUBAN EXPEDITION.

The Revolutionists Have Secured a Vessel in This Country.

TO START AT AN EARLY DATE.

General Rafael De Quesada Will Assume Command of the Expedition, and Preparations for the Start Are Being Pushed with the Greatest Secrecy.

NEW YORK, July 24.—It is an open secret in Cuban revolutionary circles that preparations are being made to send an expedition to Cuba at the earliest opportunity. At the last meeting of the revolutionary party in this city General Rafael de Quesada publicly announced that he would assume command of the first expedition to start for the islands. For some time past owners of vessels have made overtures to the leaders of the revolutionists in New York, many offering their vessels for immediate sale. Some had boats which they wished to charter for limited periods. Proposals of this kind have come from nearly every port along the Atlantic coast. It is said that considerable time has been spent by the Cubans having charge of the selection in examining the vessels offered for sale.

It is generally understood that within the past day or two a suitable vessel has been selected and purchased by this committee. The leaders of the movement in this city decline to discuss the subject, but the Cuban patriots who are not identified with the party as leaders had all heard of the purchase. The vessel is, according to reports, an iron steamer with a power of fifteen knots an hour. Neither the name of the vessel nor the port at which she is now lying could be ascertained.

A well dressed man who declined to give his name, and said that he was an American, speaking English only, entered the office of Enrique Trujillo, editor of El Porvenir, yesterday and announced that he had a hundred men, drilled and armed, ready to start for Cuba. He himself would command the force and defray the expense of transportation. Trujillo explained that any such venture would be a violation of the neutrality laws, being inclined to believe that his caller was a Spanish agent.

Gonzalo de Quesada, secretary of the revolutionary party in this city, said: "Dispatches from Madrid say that General Campos advocates sending Generals Weyler and Polavieja to assist in the work of the present rebellion. Both these men have records as tyrants and brutes, and many stories are told of their inhumanity."

Alleged Chinese Merchants Detained.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Twenty Chinamen are being held by the agents of the treasury department here until their passports can be examined. They were among fifty passengers who arrived from Havana on the steamship Orizaba on Monday, and were detained at Hoffman Island because they had not secured naturalization papers. The other passengers were released, but the Chinamen will be kept until the officials are satisfied of their right to enter the United States. They claim to be Chinese merchants on their way to San Francisco to buy goods, and profess to be very indignant because they are deprived of their liberty.

A Murderous Tramp Confesses.

LINCOLN, Ills., July 24.—The mystery surrounding the murder of Lewis McAfee was solved yesterday. A tramp caught in a corn fied and forced to surrender at the point of a shotgun has weakened and admits the murder. The neighbors of the murdered farmer have identified him as the stranger lurking in the vicinity Friday and Saturday. The culprit gives the name of Charles King, and comes from Kingston, Tenn. The deed was committed in revenge for the murdered man refusing him food in the absence of the balance of the family. A lynching is imminent.

Police Officers Sent to Prison.

CHICAGO, July 24.—George A. Holzer and Frederick Storms, policemen, were convicted yesterday of a conspiracy to defeat the election laws. Holzer was given four years in the penitentiary and Storms two years. The charge on which the Civic Federation has been prosecuting them is that they did nothing to restrain a gang of workmen from a sewer near by a polling precinct, who took possession of the polls and kept citizens from voting.

The Cup Defender Races.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Mr. Willard's formal protest against the action of the Defender in luffing across the Vigilant's bow before the start of Monday's race will not be made public until it has been acted upon by the regatta committee. This will probably be in a few days. The next and final tests will be made under the auspices of the America's cup committee, over the regular courses, for the selection of the actual defender of the trophy. These will be sailed Aug. 10 and 12, and efforts are being made to secure the entry of Jubilee. Probably Colonia may also sail in the official trials.

Agrarian Outrage in Ireland.

DUBLIN, July 23.—The neighborhood of Dungarvan, County Waterford, is greatly excited over an agrarian outrage which occurred there. While the caretaker of a farm, whose tenants had been evicted, was sitting in his house with his wife, a number of shots were fired at them through the windows. The man was fatally wounded and the woman dangerously hurt. The latter, badly injured as she was, crawled two miles to the nearest house to get assistance.

Death of Ex-Governor Rice.

BOSTON, July 23.—Ex-Governor Alexander H. Rice died in Melrose yesterday afternoon, aged 75. He was elected mayor of Boston in 1855, serving two terms, was elected to congress in 1859, and served four terms. In 1875 he was elected governor of Massachusetts, to which office he was afterwards twice re elected, and in which his administration was recognized as vigorous, prudent and progressive.

QUEER BANKING METHODS.

Startling Revelations in the Willimantic Bank Investigation.

WILLIMANTIC, Conn., July 24.—In the superior court State's Attorney Hunter applied for an injunction restraining the officers of the Dime Savings bank from carrying on business longer, for an order revoking the charter, and for a disposition of the bank property. Saturday morning was set for a hearing on the motion.

There has been several startling revelations in the Dime bank mystery, among them being the announcement that the bank was insolvent months ago.

On July 1 last the term of office of E. A. Bucks as bank commissioner expired. He declared the bank solvent at the time. Commissioner Crofut's latest examinations disprove this statement, and his disclosures caused Mr. Bucks, who was elected president of the bank on Monday afternoon, to resign.

Commissioner Crofut also discovered that the bank's bookkeeping has been of the lowest character. No interest whatever has been paid on many notes, and thousands of dollars in unsecured personal notes have been found. Among these are $1,000 in notes signed by William Bucks, son of the ex-commissioner. It has also come out that Cashier Walden advanced $16,000 of the bank's money for the purchase of the Morrison Machine company estate by Attorney Thomas J. Kelly. Mr. Kelly appeared at a meeting of the directors and explained that he acted as Mr. Walden's agent in selling machinery to Sutton & Bain, of Allentown, Pa., assuming that it was for the benefit of the bank. This was the machinery for which Walden paid $4,500 of the bank's money. The directors have appointed a committee to collect $7,000 due on this, and the latter left on a late train for Allentown.

A Brute Terribly Beaten.

BUFFALO, July 24.—Albert Surprise, a Canadian workman employed by a Black Rock lumber firm, was assaulted in the woods on Buckhorn Island, in the Niagara river, and nearly met death at the hands of an infuriated mob of his fellow workmen, because of his attempt to ravish a 7-year-old girl, the daughter of Carl Detkni. A picnic was given by the lumber firm to their employes and families. Surprise inveigled the little girl off into the woods by candy, and there was discovered by her father. Detkni and the other workmen set upon the bruse with clubs and stones and almost hammered him to death. He was in fact left for dead, but later it appears recovered consciousness and fled the country.

Lewis' Bond Forgeries.

KENTON, O., July 24.—Attorney Jesse M. Lewis, of Urbana, who has been here for several days investigating an issue of bonds floated by S. T. Lewis, the bond forger, finished his work and left for home. According to the attorney's statement duplicate Hardin county bonds to the amount of $32,000 are known to have been issued by Forger Lewis. One of the signatures to these bonds is said to be genuine, but the others are forgeries. There is alleged to be a large amount of duplicate bonds in this county afloat, possibly as much as $100,000.

Three-Year-Old Child Murdered.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 24.—Three-year-old Ida Gebhard, who mysteriously disappeared from home in West Indianapolis last Saturday morning, was found dead in a stable about one square from her home last night. The body was found in a box covered with rubbish, and every indication points to murder. Her skull was crushed and there was evidence which show that she was assaulted. Suspicion points to a man named John Linson, and the city and suburbs are being scoured for him.

Morocco Pays Indemnity.

TANGIER, July 24.—The German consul at this port has been paid the sum of $70,000 as indemnity upon the part of Morocco for the murder of a German trader named Rockstroth. Four German warships have been here for some time past supporting the demands of the German consul in this matter. Two Dutch warships are also here to support the demands of the German consul, acting for Holland, and an indemnity for the plundering of the Dutch brig Marie Anne by Riff pirates.

Brazil's Government Protests.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The Herald's correspondent in Rio Janeiro, Brazil, telegraphs via Buenos Ayres that advices to the English legation there declare that England claims the Island of Trinidad as her own. One cargo of coal, it is reported, has been landed on the island already. In view of this it was decided by Brazil's cabinet to formally protest, and a message to that effect was at once sent to Brazil's minister in London.

Vandalism in a Soldiers' Cemetery.

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., July 24.—Great excitement prevails over an act of vandalism during the night. The cemetery at the Iowa Soldiers' home was entered by an unknown miscreant, who, with a sledge hammer, defaced and broke off at the ground forty-six marble slabs erected by the government over the soldiers' graves. The damage will reach $1,000.

Wrecked the Safe with Dynamite.

READING, Pa., July 24.—The lumber office of D. G. Gross, at Monocacy, this county, was entered by thieves during the night, who broke open the safe with dynamite, wrecking the building and carried away valuable papers. Half a dozen minor robberies took place during the night.

The Princeton Party All Right.

NEW YORK, July 24.—B. Forsyth Little, father of B. Forsyth Little, Jr., one of the party of Princeton students now in Wyoming, received a dispatch yesterday saying that all of the party are at Fountain Geyser, Wyo., and all perfectly well.

Have Neither Funds Nor Friends.

BOSTON, July 24.—Nineteen immigrants of the fifty-nine who reached this port yesterday on the steamer Hercynia from Hamburg will be returned to the fatherland, as they have neither funds nor friends.

THE FINANCIAL DEBATE.

Another Day of the Great Harvey-Horr Controversy.

INCREASE OF PRECIOUS METALS.

Mr. Horr Declares That Gold Has Only Doubled in Quantity Since 1874, While Silver Has Increased Threefold—Mr. Harvey on Primary Money.

CHICAGO, July 24.—The contention of Messrs. Horr and Harvey over the silver question was resumed in the Illinois club house. The day's talk was opened by Mr. Harvey. He said that the debate of the last session was of value as showing that during the past forty years silver had been steadily coined, in spite of the assertion to the contrary; that by the table copied from the reports of the mint the commercial ratio between gold and silver had been maintained at about the French coinage ratio of 15½ to 1 for 200 years; that during the twenty-two years since 1873, as a result of demonetization, the commercial ratio had declined to 32 to 1; that in the 338 years prior to 1873 the quantity ratio between gold and silver had ranged from fifty-six of silver to one of gold to four of silver to one of gold, and that during all that time the commercial ratio had clung closely to the legal ratio. During all that time the commercial price of silver bullion had remained steady. Since 1873 it had steadily and rapidly decreased. It was the dominating influence of London on exchange to all parts of the world which led to gold being recognized by the world as the standard in all commercial transactions.

Mr. Horr, in his opening remarks, proceeded to call attention to what he called misleading statements in Mr. Harvey's book. For instance, he declared to be untrue the statement that it was believed that the cost of producing all of the gold in the world was about $2 per ounce, while some put it much higher. Mr. Horr pointed out that there had been a vastly increased production at greatly reduced prices. At the cost which Mr. Harvey spoke of the silver miners in three years would have lost over $100,000,000.

Again, Mr. Harvey had put the aggregate amount of silver in the world at about $2,000,000,000. It was estimated that there was about $6,000,000,000. Mr. Harvey had said that the debts of the United States amounted to $40,000,000,000. This was an absurdity. The statement of the amount of interest which the United States paid annually to Europe was also untrue.

Mr. Harvey said that the amount of silver referred to by him in his book was the amount available for coinage. He said this government had fixed the price of gold, and all the friends of silver wanted was for it to fix the price of silver, in the belief that the nation could better keep out of the hands of the pawnbroker with two metals than one. Returning to his argument on bimetallism, he said that the option of the debtor to pay in the cheaper metal should not be impaired. This would always maintain a parity.

Mr. Horr declared that since 1874 the production of silver has been steadily on the increase, and that gold has, since 1875, been also on the increase; but while silver had increased in quantity three times during that period gold had only doubled in quantity.

Mr. Harvey went back to the discussion of primary money as a measure of value. In 1867, he declared, all the money in circulation was $18.28 per capita, and in 1872 it was $19.10 per capita, and at these times all money was primary money, the measure of value being paper itself. In 1894 we had a per capita circulation of $24.23. He then said: "Now, you will all say that the quantity of money in circulation affects prices. You had more money—primary and credit combined—in circulation in 1894 per capita than you had in the two years named previous to 1873, and yet prices were higher then than now.

Mr. Horr said Mr. Harvey's definition of primary money was money of redemption. Greenbacks had to be redeemed to make them good, and they could not by any hook or crook be construed into primary money.

Mr. Harvey denied that Mr. Horr was justified in calling him a greenbacker, and said that he believed in gold and silver as primary money to the fullest extent under the bimetallic laws that governed it prior to 1873.

Adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

Charged with Poisoning His Family.

CHICAGO, July 24.—John Olsen, a carpenter, was arrested yesterday charged with attempting to murder his family. His wife, Johanna, and two daughters, Johanna, aged 8 years, and Mary, aged 4 years, are dangerously ill from drinking coffee, in which Olsen is said to have placed a quantity of poison. There is a chance for the recovery of the woman and children, as they received prompt medical attention. It is charged that Olsen poisoned his family that he might marry another woman with whom he is infatuated.

The First American Steel Vessel.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The magnificent American four masted ship Dirigo, of Bath, Me., commanded by Captain Goodwin, arrived in port yesterday on her maiden voyage from Hiogo, Japan. The Dirigo has the distinction of being the first steel vessel ever built in America.

Latest English Election Returns.

LONDON, July 24.—According to the pollings thus far returned the state of the parties is as follows: Conservatives and Unionists, 364; Liberals, 126; McCarthyites, 57; Parnellites, 9; Labor, 2; total opposition, 194. The Unionists thus far show a net gain of 73 seats.

Japan Demands Additional Indem

SHANGHAI, July 24.—Japan dem £7,500,000 sterling additional indemnity as compensation for the retrocession of China of the Liao Tung peninsula.

SCOTCH HUMOR

It Crops Out Occasionally Among Elders of the Kirk.

The elder of the kirk, like most of us, can blunder occasionally The pastor of a small village on the borders had gone for a few days to visit some relatives, when an old lady was suddenly stricken down and not expected to live more than a few hours The elder was hastily summoned to attend, but, having been lately elected to the post, which he had accepted in order to satisfy the vanity of his wife he did not feel able to face the trying ordeal His wife entreated him to do his duty, and whispering a few lines of Scripture into his ears sent him off on his errand

An hour later his wife beheld him stepping homeward as brisk as a March hare She inquired how he had come on

"Oh, fine, woman, fine!" was the reply "She was dead when I got there!"

A short time ago, when disestablishment was in everybody's mouth, an old lady created quite a sensation in a church not far from Annan Having been from home a considerable time, she was unaware that the election of elders had taken place She attended services the following Sunday, when the minister, commenting on the result, remarked that in David Richardson the church had a new pillar of strength, to which she retorted "What! David Richardson a pillar! Nae wonder the auld kirk's gaun to fa'!" David, who had the misfortune to have a wooden leg and a hump back, quietly rose up and answered 'Whee ht, ye gowk Criffel's (a mountain in the neighborhood) not straight!"

On one occasion the minister met Donald coming from Dumfries Road fair in rather a muddled state "David! David! Do I see your double?"

"Eh, goodsakes, minister!" exclaimed the elder, "goodsakes, are ye fou tae?"

A minister, feeling indisposed on one occasion, did not put in an appearance, and the elder, apologizing for his absence gave it out that "his reverence was unco bad in the roomatic" (for so he pronounced the word rheumatism) 'and couldn't get out'

SARDINE FISHING.

The Process From the Time of the Catch to the Canning and Cooking.

Toward the end of April the sardine fishermen along the coast of Brittany begin to watch for the bubbling of the sardines on the surface of the sea For they know that vast shoals of the little fish are on their way from the coast of Africa up through the bay of Biscay to the north, and that they must be caught, if at all, as they pass When any one sees the water agitated, word spreads rapidly and the boats put out from the shore and race to the shoal.

When the net is extended, the water is "baited" by throwing balls of "roque" into it As the bait dissolves and sinks the sardines rise and remain long after to nibble it, and their doom is sealed For this reason "roque" is a most important part of the sardine fisherman's outfit It is made of the eggs of mackerel and codfish mixed with clay, and is rather expensive, costing from 25 shillings to 70 shillings a barrel.

Within the curing factories or canneries everything is bustle and confusion, for there must not be a moment's delay in cleaning the fish All night long the work is carried on by the light of blazing oil tracks The sardines are spread out on benches or tables, where salt is dusted over them Then the women go along and snip off the heads with great scissors

The little flat boxes so well known to commerce are taken one by one and filled from the glistening pile of fish, after which pure olive oil from the province of Bari, in Italy, is poured over them and the tops soldered on

In the meantime a great caldron of hot water has been raised to the boiling point ready for the real operation of cooking the fish The sealed boxes are thrown into it and left for two or three hours If any oil appears on the top of the water the master workman knows that some can has not been properly soldered, and the loss is charged up to the man who did the work A good workman will not lose more than two or three boxes in 100.—New York Recorder

Relief in Six Hours.

Distressing Kidney and Bladder diseases relieved in six hours by the "New Great South American Kidney Cure." This new remedy is a great surprise on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in the bladder, kidneys, back and every part of the urinary passages in male or female. It relieves retention of water and pain in passing it almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure this is your remedy. Sold by J. E. Mills, druggist, Middletown, N. Y.

A Short Cut to Health.

To try to cure constipation by taking pills is like going round in a circle. You will never reach the point sought, but only get back to the starting point. A perfect natural laxative is Bacon's Celery King, the celebrated remedy for all nerve, blood, stomach, liver and kidney diseases. It regulates the bowels. John J. Chambers will give you a sample package free. 6

A SAMPLE CASE

An Innocent Man Convicted on Circumstantial Evidence.

"Did I ever know of an innocent man being convicted on circumstantial evidence?" repeated a Detroit lawyer who was smoking a cigar in a hotel the other evening "Yes, I know of a case In fact, I was the prisoner's attorney It happened in Missouri about 20 years ago and was one of my first cases

"It was this way," continued the lawyer as he got comfortably settled down "A farmer had a horse stolen, and the animal was followed for ten miles and found under a shed in the suburbs of the town where I lived At the same time they found a man in hiding. He refused to give any account of himself, and when charged with being the horse thief he did not deny it. It was not until he was put on trial in the higher court that I was retained He stoutly declared his innocence and had several men on hand to prove his good character, but he wouldn't account for his whereabouts on the night the horse was stolen I not only felt sure of his guilt, but had no show to make for him and wasn't disappointed when he was convicted offhand As to the 'circumstantial' part, they proved that he knew the horse and had said he felt tempted to steal it, also that he was seen that evening within a mile of the farmer's barn Horse hairs were found on his trousers legs, and he was in hiding near the horse Everything pointed to his guilt and the jury made quick work of him

"And wasn't he guilty?" asked one of the group

"Not a bit of it After he had been sentenced for three years his wife came to me and wanted me to advise him to tell the truth She knew it all the time. He was out that night with two other men to rob a store, and they got away with a wagon load of goods He was set to watch, and while thus serving was run into the shed by the men in pursuit of the horse thief The latter got away and the other was captured To give his gang time to get away he let himself be taken to jail and was ultimately tried, convicted and sentenced. He had no more to do with the horse than I had.'

"And what did you advise?"

"His best interest, of course. He'd got three years for stealing a horse, but if he owned up to the store robbery he'd get from 10 to 15 I told him to shut up, and the advice was so good that I got $50 for it Yes, circumstantial evidence sometimes convicts an innocent man, and if you are ever on a jury it will be well to remember this fact"—Detroit Free Press

"MAN OVERBOARD!"

A Lively Little Joke, but It Cost Him His Baggage.

"'Steamship passengers frequently resort to practical jokes to relieve the monotony of voyages,' said a retired sea captain yesterday, "and while the pranks, as a rule are perfectly harmless they sometimes have an unpleasant boomerang effect Three years ago we were crossing the Atlantic, and both the owners and myself were exceedingly anxious to make a speedy trip, as a rival liner had the week before lowered the record held by our company On the third day out just about dusk the cry of 'Man overboard! rang through the ship and a hurried investigation elicited the information that several of the passengers had heard a splash, followed by piteous appeals of 'Help help! Save me!' The engines were stopped, and the steamer put about, a close watch being kept meanwhile for the drowning man A half hour was spent in cruising about without results, and we started on our journey under the belief that the poor fellow had gone to the bottom The inquiry that followed proved puzzling No one was missing, and we came to the conclusion that a stowaway had committed suicide

"The next day, however, an explanation came We had a ventriloquist aboard in the person of a very smart young man, who was too tickled over the success of his joke to keep the secret

"Then the laugh was on him As he had caused a serious delay and much annoyance I notified him that I had made an official entry of the circumstance on my log and the loss of time, and that on approaching shore I would detain him until a sufficient guarantee had been put up that he would answer in court to reply to a demand for financial restitution I talked of $50,000 being about the penalty under the government rules in such cases, and it is needless to say I spent the balance of the voyage on terra firma He did not reappear before we docked, leaving his baggage behind"—San Francisco Post

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

DON'T YOU DO IT!

Don't You Put Any Money in Building Lots that are from One to Two Miles from Franklin Square.

True, "some time," the city will grow out that far, but when? True, you can get there by taking the trolley, but that costs each year as much as the interest on a complete house and lot. Don't you put any money in a building lot that can't be reached by water, gas mains and the sewer system, and that are outside of the corporation limits o the city. These facts are more important than they at first seem. Don't you let any man put a restriction in your deed. Own your land in fee simple, without one single restriction that will prevent your selling it. Any good lawyer will tell you that.

BECAUSE WHY.

If you want to make a loan to help yourself build, it will be different. Because your insurance costs more. Because your house may burn down without fire protection. Because you will always have to depend on a well or cistern. Because your wife can't walk if she misses the last car. Because you can never have a sewer. Because deep snow may keep you home for two or three days. Because your land won't increase in value.

RICHMOND HILL!

Lots have passed the experimental stage We have sold 150, to many of the best citizens of the city. The lots are only five minutes from Franklin Square They are nearer than the Wickham avenue depot, they are on high ground, they are rapidly building up, they are within the city, they are a short distance of sewer, water and gas, they are large lots they overlook the entire city, they are backed by men who won't see them lie idle (for this year at any rate), they are cheap in price to the first comers. We are selling them on easy terms—$5 per month, without interest, and a suitable reduction for cash.

OVER THE SHAWANGUNKS.

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS IN SULLIVAN COUNTY ARE DOING.

All the News from All Parts of the County—Many Matters of Interest Condensed from our Sullivan Exchanges and Contributed by Wide-Awake Correspondents.

—The annual picnic of St. Peter's Catholic Church, Liberty, will be held in Schaefer's Grove, Aug 8th.

—Unknown parties, presumably tramps, broke into the O. and W. freight house in Liberty, Friday night, and after opening a number of packages, stole a few quarts of whiskey, some cigars and a few oranges.

—The Liberty Gazette, speaking of the grasshopper plague, says that in the holes dug for telephone poles near that village grasshoppers can be found to the depth of several inches, the pests having leaped into the holes and not being able to get out.

—Frank J. Lindsey, the Middletown architect, has just completed plans for a new creamery to be erected at this place, by Messrs. Jordan & Pound. The building will be 36x140 feet and will be one of the most modern in its arrangements of any milk establishment along the railroad.—Liberty Gazette.

—While Roswell Lindsley, of Benton Hollow, was on his way to Liberty with a lumber wagon he stopped to give a nurse girl a ride. While helping her to a seat on the rear axle the horses started and ran away, and when they came to the bridge over the railroad tracks one of them went outside the railing and fell to the track below, breaking its neck.

—The Liberty Gazette says that after careful inquiry it is satisfied that there are more city people in Sullivan county, along the line of the O. and W., than ever before at this date. At White Lake and Monticello and at points north of Liberty the Gazette says there are undoubtedly fewer people than in former years. This year the demand has been for moderate prices. Comparatively few people have been willing to pay ten dollars or more per week, and hundreds of them are boarding for six dollars per week or less. The result is that the low priced farm houses are doing a comparatively better business than the higher priced houses in the village. General Passenger Agent Anderson says the O. and W. has carried more summer boarders this year than ever before and Conductor George Close, who runs the Sullivan County Express, says that since June 15 his train has carried 2,162 New York passengers, as compared with 1,649 in the same time last year.

Grand Lodge, K. of P. Election.

The twenty-seventh annual session of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of this State, began yesterday, at Catskill. The following grand officers were elected:

Populatica of the State Hospital.

According to the Conglomerate, there were, Tuesday, 1,125 patients in the State Homeopathic Hospital for the Insane, in this city, of whom 548 were males and 577 females. During the week seven patients were admitted and four discharged.

AMERICAN SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM

Sept. 16, Messrs. Bennett & Conkling will open in Middletown the American School of Journalism. Pupils will be instructed in all branches of newspaper work, including that of the editor, reporter, proof reader and typesetter. The school will have three departments—journalism, typesetting and proofreading, and stenography and typewriting. The department last named will be in charge of Miss Millicent J. Lain, who for a year has successfully conducted a school of stenography in this city.

N. E. Conkling is an all around new-paper man, having had many years experience in New York and Middletown. His partner, A. T. Bennett, has an interest in a New York publishing house. d1t.

THE ENGINEER AND THE SPOTTER.

Did Up the Kodak Manipulater Who Photographed Him While Drinking Beer.

From the Newburgh Telegram.

One of the engineers of the railroad that runs to and crosses the Po'keepsie bridge recently went into a hotel at Campbell Hall for refreshments. As he lifted a glass of beer to his lips, he was startled by an ominous click, and was confronted by a detective who had just taken a kodak snap shot at him. Railway engineers are very prompt to act, so without a second's hesitation he threw the glass and beer at the spotter's head. He then knocked him down, smashed his machine, and gave him a thorough and systematic licking. After settling matters with the artist, the engineer went to the railroad office and sent his resignation to headquarters. Several unlucky brakemen, and other employes of the company, have been caught and photographed by this same artist, who is by no means a general favorite on the road.

SWARMS OF GRASSHOPPERS.

So Many of Them That They Interfere With Gathering the Hay Crop.

From our Up-Midland Correspondent.

The grasshoppers are so plenty in the Up-Midland section that in many cases they have interfered with gathering the hay crop. One farmer, who had cut around a large lot, was compelled to abandon it in the centre, as the hoppers became so plenty that the grass was all laid flat, owing to their weight, and besides the mowing machine could not cut through the solid mass made by their bodies. The like of this grasshopper pest was never seen before. RUSTICUS.

A Most Ungallant Wheelman.

Mrs. Henry C. Knox, wife of the cashier of the Paterson National Bank, while riding a bicycle in that city, near her home, last night, was run into by a careless wheelman and thrown to the ground. Her leg was broken, and though she appealed to the man who had caused the accident to assist her, he paid no attention to her, but mounted his wheel and rode off as fast as he could.

Twenty-one Rounds to a Draw.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—One of the most clever contests that ever took place before the Eureka Athletic club occurred last night between Johnny Van Heest (white), of New York and Jerry Marshal (colored), of Australia. Twenty rounds was the advertised limit, but the referee allowed an additional round and at its close both men were in good condition, so the referee declared it a draw. Marshal was marvelously quick, and it was simply his ability to avoid punishment and Van Heest's inability to strike that made the result as to the merits of the men inconclusive. Van Heest had sent around the neck and his left wrist was badly strained, but Marshal did not apparently have a mark on him.

Another Brooklyn Bridge Jumper.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Patrick Callahan, a bartender in search of notoriety jumped from the Brooklyn bridge into the East river yesterday. He was picked up by men in a rowboat who were waiting for him. Upon landing Callahan and his companions were arrested. Callahan was bleeding from the mouth and complained of great pain in the back. He was taken to a hospital. It is alleged that the jump was made for a purse of $1,700.

Death of an Express Magnate.

BOSTON, July 24.—Hon. B. P. Cheney, president of the American Express company, died yesterday at his home in Wellesley of intermittent fever, aged 81. Mr. Cheney was the largest owner in the Atchison road and largely interested in Northern Pacific and in express companies east and west.

Pirates at Bedouins.

JEDDAH, July 24.—A mob of 150 Bedouins made an armed attack yesterday upon a number of officers in the harbor. They boarded the vessels and plundered the merchants' goods on board. Seven officers and nine negro stewards were seriously wounded in defending the goods.

THE SILVER CITY FLOOD.

Great Destruction of Property, but Not a Life Lost.

SILVER CITY, N. M., July 24.—Between 8 o'clock and midnight Sunday night five inches of rain fell in this city and in the mountains to the north. Before 9 o'clock the water was rushing down the mountain sides in torrents, and a few minutes later the business streets of the city were filled with a flood from four to eight feet deep. The grade of the streets is heavy, and water rushed through them with such swiftness that crossing was impossible. A foot bridge which had been constructed so that people in the lower part of the town could cross to a place of safety in case of a flood was washed away, and all means of getting out of the flooded district was cut off.

The night was intensely dark, and for three hours the people of the city were terror stricken. Several people gave themselves up for lost when some of the weaker buildings began to crumble before the destructive floods. Nine buildings were washed down, but not a life was lost.

In the business part of the city many buildings are settling, and the amount of the loss may reach thousands of dollars more than the losses which are now certain. Some estimates place the loss as high as $350,000. The railroad company has sustained a heavy loss, and it will take more than a week to repair the tracks so that trains can be gotten here. Telegraphic communication has just been re-established.

THREE WORKMEN KILLED.

Bodies Fearfully Mangled by Exploding Dynamite.

CHICAGO, July 24.—Three men were instantly killed and a fourth badly injured by a premature explosion of dynamite on the drainage canal, near Willow Springs. The dead are: William Kelly of Marquette. Thomas Soaker of Chicago and Joseph Smith, residence unknown. Matthew Healey received a severe scalp wound.

Kelly, Soaker and Smith were preparing a blast, and were pressing the dynamite into the hole, when suddenly the blast, which was almost completed, went off. All three men were hurled high in the air and came down fully 200 yards from the scene of the explosion. All were mangled in a most horrible manner.

Over a hundred men were at work close to the blast when the explosion occurred, and it is a wonder that the loss of life was not much greater. They made a wild break for cover when the shower of rock began to fall, and all escaped injury with the exception of Healey, who was struck by a piece of rock.

No cause is known for the explosion, as all the men were careful and experienced in the handling of dynamite.

Miners Want Coal Prices Advanced.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 24.—The Independent Union of Mine Workers of America have petitioned the coal operators of the Wyoming valley to advance the price of coal in order that the operators may be in a better position to give the miners an increase of wages. Attention is called to the fact that while some of the necessaries of life have advanced in price during the past year the wages of miners have been reduced. The operators are asked to attend a conference to be held at Pottsville. The coal operators here say the deplorable condition of the coal trade will not warrant an increase of miners' wages, and they all decline to attend the conference. It is not apprehended that their refusal will cause a strike.

A Chicago Firebug's Confession.

KENOSHA, Wis., July 24.—Bernard Rosenow one of the men arrested in connection with the burning of the plant of the Chicago Bedding company, has confessed that he applied the torch. According to Rosenow's statement he was to receive $300 for the job. He said one of the men now under arrest made him the offer, but he says he only received $50 after the job was done. Rosenow says he purchased three barrels of benzine in Chicago and took them to the works, where he buried them under a load of rags and applied the torch. An explosion followed, and Rosenow jumped through a window to save his life. He says he is now convinced that it was intended he should perish in the building.

Murderer Windish Captured.

PITTSTON, Pa., July 24.—Chief of Police Loftus received a telegram from Wheeling, W. Va., last night informing him of the arrest in that city of August Windish, wanted in Pittston for murder. Windish killed his wife last March because he had tired of her and having previously disposed of his property fled the country. A local detective is now in Germany in search of him.

Killed by an Exploding Cannon.

TOKIO, July 24.—At a trial of guns at Bonintas the breech was blown off one of the pieces and a sailor was killed. Admiral Chate-tamnois, two officers and several men were wounded.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 24, 1895.

Gov. Morton ought to lose no time in commuting the sentence of Maria Barberi. It will have to come to that in the end, and by saving her from the death chair now, he will also save an innocent public from the worst attack of newspaper hysterics that has been known in many a year.

As was to be expected, the Quay-Hastings fight for the control of the Republican machine in Pennsylvania has settled down to a matter of boodle. Quay is first in the field with charges of corruption, and has affidavits from two Indian county delegates that they were offered $300 each to abandon Quay and support the Hastings-Magee-Martin combine.

Yachtsmen are agreed that Vigilant, in her present form, is from ten to thirteen minutes faster over a thirty mile course than she was in 1893. Defender showed, Monday, that she is nine minutes faster than the Vigilant. It is not by any means certain that Valkyrie III. is a better boat than the Valkyrie of 1893, and as the yachtsmen figure it out Defender has a margin of close to twenty minutes in her favor. Therefore they're not at all uneasy about the cup.

LADIES HURT IN A RUNAWAY.

Three Unionville Ladies Have Experiences With a Colt on the Port Jervis Road.

From our Unionville Correspondent.

Mrs. Mary Wells and her daughters, Mrs. John Kimball and Miss Cordelia Straley, started Tuesday for Port Jervis to visit friends in that village. They drove a colt that was supposed to be gentle, and for a time all went well, but at the culvert it took fright and bolted, throwing Miss Straley from the carriage, the wheels of which passed over her, injuring her quite badly.

Just above the culvert the colt took fright again at a broken down wagon and plunged through a barbed wire fence, throwing out Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Kimball. The former's collar bone was broken and Mrs. Kimball was badly bruised. The wagon was badly broken.

Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Kimball came home with a livery rig, arriving here about 11 o'clock, last night. Miss Straley was so badly hurt that she remained in Port Jervis.

Yesterday, was, indeed, an unlucky day for Unionville people.

THE PROPOSED NEW SWITCH.

The Railroad Committee of the Common Council Gives Its Consent—A Threatened Injunction.

The Railroad Committee of the Common Council and Capt. Rockwell looked over the grade at the junction of West Main street and Wickham avenue, where it is proposed to put in a switch for cars to pass on the Asylum line, and the committee, after learning that much of the opposition of citizens in that locality had been withdrawn after ascertaining just where the rails were to be located, granted the Traction Co permission to put in its switch.

It is understood that the papers are all ready to make application to the Court for an injunction restraining the company from putting in a switch at that point, but if the company receives its franchise from Bonnell and Stanton streets the effect will be merely to delay the work of constructing the road to the Hospital. The switch will doubtless be located there in the end.

TRAIN ROBBERY IN OHIO.

A Lake Shore Train Held Up and the Express Safe Robbed—Employes Suspected of Collusion.

BY UNITED PRESS.

TOLEDO, July 24.—The westbound New York and Chicago express on the Lake Shore road was held up by six masked men, after midnight last night, at Reece siding. At the point of a revolver the men gained admission to the express car and forced the messenger to open the safe. It is reported that the men secured $8,000, but it is believed a much larger sum was taken. The thieves rode into the woods after securing the money. It is believed employees of the railroad or express company were in collusion with them.

The passengers were in a panic, but were not molested. The robbers exploded six charges of dynamite against the strong safe, but failed to blow it open. They got into the way safe with much difficulty, but the Superintendent of the Express Company says it did not contain over $150.

TWENTY YEARS FOR MURDER

The Negro Collins Who Killed Student Ohl, of Princeton, Sentenced

BY UNITED PRESS.

TRENTON, July 24 — The negro, Collins, who shot and killed Ohl, a Princeton student and who was convicted of murder in the second degree was, to-day, sentenced to twenty years in prison at hard labor. He received a sentence of ten years more for his attrocious assault on Student Cochrane, but as the sentences are concurrent the first only counts.

The jury would have been justified in bringing in a verdict of murder in the first degree.

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING BURNED.

BY UNITED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The building of the Young Mens' Christian Association on New York avenue, was burned, to-day. and Bryan's grocery store and Lambies' hardware store adjoining were damaged. The total loss is estimated at $60,000.

THE BANNOCKS' OUTBREAK.

Troops to Be Sent to Compel the Indians to Return to Their Reservation.

BY UNITED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The Indian Commissioner, to-day, had a consultation with the Secretary of War regarding the outbreak of the Bannock Indians in the Salt River Valley. He asked that soldiers be sent to compel the Indians to return to their reservation.

It is understood orders will be issued, to-day, directing that troops be sent from the Department of the Platte to the Jackson's Hole country to compel the Indians to return to their reservation.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A PRIEST.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Rev. Father McGill, pastor of St. Peter's Catholic Church, at Rosendale, N. Y, was found dead in bed at the Mission of Immaculate Virgin, to day. Apoplexy was the cause of death.

THE EXTENSION OF HIGHLAND AVENUE.

Efforts to Prevent David R. Miller From Moving the Street "After Haying"

Many residents of Middletown have attached their names to a petition to to the Common Council, asking that David R. Miller be not permitted to change the line of the extension of Highland avenue.

In the town of Wallkill there is also a movement on foot to prevent any change in the line of the street, a small part of which is or ought to be under the control of the Commissioners of Highways of that town.

A prominent resident of Wallkill, who doesn't love Mr. Miller for a cent, has expressed his willingness to contribute $100 to a fund to be expended in seeing whether the public has any rights in this extension of Highland avenue matter that Mr. Miller can be forced to respect.

It looks now as if Mr Miller might not be able to move the street "after haying" The time to have done it was when the Common Council weakly assented to his plan to subordinate public convenience and the appearance of what ought to be a fine thoroughfare to his real estate interests. If Mr. Miller is tripped up on his "after haying" scheme of street improvement, he will not be the first man, who has found that 'delays are dangerous."

Why Not Top Dress West Main Street?

Now that the foolishness of again "permanently" improving West Main street has been dropped by the city fathers, no further delay should be suffered in giving that thoroughfare a coating of crushed stone The substructure is all right; will last for years. All that is needed to give public satisfaction is such care of the surface as Mayor Bailey gave it.

THE ASYLUM LINE.

Work on the Extension Through Lake Avenue to be Begun Next Week.

It was the intention of the Traction Company, at the request of property holders on Lake avenue and for its own convenience in making the curve, to lay the track on the north side of the street instead of in the centre as usual, but it has been discovered that the twelve inch iron water main is laid on that side of the street and as it must be dug up frequently for repairs, owing to the character of the soil, it would be impracticable to lay the rails on that side and therefore they will be laid in the centre. Work will probably be commenced the first of the week.

A FRESH AIR FUND OF THEIR OWN

How Two Brooklyn Sunday Schools Give Their Poor Children an Outing.

Miss J. Resinger, secretary of the Ross Street Presbyterian Church Sunday School of Brooklyn and a member of the Poor Committee of the church, arrived in town on train 9, to-day, in charge of eight children whom she was taking to Pine Bush to spend a couple of weeks.

Miss Resinger is also the representative of St. John's M. E. Sunday School at Bedford avenue and Werts street. This is her third weekly trip with eight children from these two schools. When she returns she will take back the eight children who came up two weeks ago and bring up another section of eight, and so continue until all the children in both schools have had their outing.

"To-day," said Miss Resinger, "I have six Presbyterians and two Methodists; next time they may all belong to one denomination or the other just as it may happen that they are ready to come. We mix up denominations promiscuously on these trips, but it is easy enough to separate the 'Presbyterians from the Methodists when we get home."

Miss Resinger was evidently happy in her work, but not more so than the children under her care.

FRESH AIR FUND CHILDREN.

Fifteen children from the Cathedral Mission in Stanton street, New York, sent out by the Tribune Fresh Air Fund, arrived in this city on the Erie's 3:40 train, this afternoon. They were met at the station by Rector Evans, of Grace Church, who had arranged for their entertainment at Farmer John Dodd's, near Otisville, and who accompanied the children to Otisville.

The children are all girls and one of them is remarkably beautiful.

After Fresh Air on Their Own Account.

Fifteen boys, who said they were "fresh air" children, sent out by the Tribune, arrived in town on train 9, and transferred to the Crawford train. There was no one in charge of them, but one, who styled himself the captain, said they were going to Pine Bush.

The boys were well dressed, and looked so healthy, that they were in strong contrast to most of the Fresh Air children who come to this section.

Funeral of Alma Hayes.

The funeral of little Alma Hayes took place at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hayes, on Mulbury street, at 1.30 o'clock this afternoon. Only relatives and a few friends of the family were present.

Rev. David Evans, rector of Grace Church, read the Episcopal burial service.

The floral offerings were many and very beautiful.

SYDNEY SMITH'S

Famous recipe for Salad Dressing:

Two boiled potatoes strained through a kitchen sieve,
Softness and smoothness to the salad give;
Of Mordan mustard take a single spoon—
Distrust the condiment that bites too soon.
Yet deem it not, though man of taste, a fault
To add a double quantity of salt
Four times the spoon with Oil of Lucca crown
And twice with vinegar procured from town.
True taste requires it, and your poet begs
The pounded yellow of two well-boiled eggs;
Let onion atoms lurk within the bowl,
And scarce suspected animate the whole.
And lastly, in the flavored compound toss
A magic teaspoonful of anchovy sauce.
Oh, great and glorious! Oh, herbaceous meat!
'Twould tempt the dying anchorite to eat;
Back to the world he'd turn his weary soul,
And plunge his fingers in the salad bowl.

Yes—that's it—just the kind of olive oil we sell, 'Lucca Cream" Salad Oil. We meant to tell you a true little story about it only we're too busy. But it's just the kind which Sydney Smith meant for his famous salad dressing.

—Coinnoisseurs will appreciate Lucca-Cream Olive Oil pressed from well-ripened olives absolutely pure and of delicious flavor.

Our own bottling in good honest 8-oz bottles 35 cents, full pints 60 cents.

—There is no improvement in the condition of Mr. Walter C. Many. He is unconscious most of the time. He is suffering from an affection of the heart and spasmodic asthma.

—Judge Willard Bartlett, of Brooklyn, one of the Supreme Court justices of this district, will start Saturday for Japan. He expects to spend a month in that country and will not return until about the middle of October.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Backman, of Washington, D. C., were guests of the Holding House, last night. They are on their way to visit Ellenville, N. Y. Mr. Backman is a foreman in the government printing office.

—Miss Alma Evans, of 48 Lake avenue, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Chris Ferguson, of Mount Salem, N. J., returned home, to-day. She was accompanied by her cousin, Mr. Everett Ferguson, who will spend a few days here.

—Miss Jennie Stewart, of Davenport, Ia., a daughter of the late Charles Stewart, who was, many years ago, a member of the dry goods firm of Shaw, Stewart & McQuoid, arrived in this city, Monday, on a visit to relatives. She is now staying at her uncle's, Mr. James L. Stewart's, on Highland avenue.

A VERY BAD ITALIAN.

Held For the Grand Jury on a Charge of Unnatural Assault on a Three-Year-Old Boy.

Charles Vuolo, an Italian aged sixteen years, a shoemaker, of No. 67 Cottage street, was held by Recorder Bradner, this morning, to await the action of the Grand Jury, on a charge of an unnatural assault upon a three-and-a-half year old child, of Antonio Gross, of 73 Cottage street.

About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the child's grandmother, Mary Barberi, sent the child for a little tin pailful of water. Some time afterwards neighbors heard the child crying in Vuolo's shop, and told the grandmother. She went to the shop and met Vuolo and the child coming out of the doorway. The young man was taking the child to a candy store to buy it some candy.

The child was taken to its home and for half an hour continued its screams, when it was quieted enough to tell its story.

The father of the child brought the little one to police headquarters and from there it was taken to Dr. Nelson's office where an examination was made.

Upon the strength of the examination a warrant was issued for Vuolo's arrest, and after a long hunt he was located under a bed at his home, on Cottage street.

He pleaded not guilty when arraigned but the evidence was sufficient to warrant his detention.

The maximum penalty for the offense is twenty years in State prison. Bail can only be furnished upon application to the County Judge.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.

A Sheep Killing Dog Killed at Phillipsburgh.

On Thursday night of last week, dogs killed twenty out of a flock of twenty-three sheep belonging to Mrs. Frederika Blumel at Phillipsburgh.

This morning some of her neighbors, who have been keeping guns loaded expecting another visit of the dogs, saw two dogs chasing the three sheep that were left of the flock. The guns were brought out and one of the dogs, a black and white one that is said to have belonged to Cuno Musbach, was shot, but the other, a black one, managed to escape. The dogs had bitten one of the sheep quite badly.

The town of Wallkill will have a snug sum to pay out of its dog tax fund.

Sawed His Arm.

Ward Edwards, Jr., who is employed in the O. and W. shops, while using a hand saw, yesterday, sawed a gash in his wrist that penetrated to the bone.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN COSHEN.

Good Trotting on the Driving Park—Columbias vs. Goshen Athletics—Too Much Fire Water—Vacancy in the Excise Board—Paid 100 Cents on the Dollar—Other Notes.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

—A large number of people visit the Goshen Driving Park every Tuesday and Friday to see some of the fast ones go, for on these days there is always good trotting. Yesterday, Lena C, driven by P. E. Gumaer, and Ella Madison, driven by I. B. Gurney, had a little brush, and the two seemed very evenly matched as they came under the wire, neck and neck, making the mile in 2:33¼. Henry Landy's Prince H., was given a slow mile in 2:32¼. Trilby, driven by I. B. Gurney, went a mile in 2:29.

—The Columbias arrived in town, this afternoon, accompanied by a delegation of "rooters," and seem quite confident of victory. The Goshen club is in fine condition, however, and it looks as though the old song would be sung by the many admirers of the Goshen players. "It's a cold day for the Columbias, so they say."

—James O'Connor, who claims a residence at Montgomery, indulged in too much "fire water" and was arrested, Saturday, for being drunk and disorderly. He was discharged, Monday morning, on promising to get out of town. He succeeded in getting another "jag" on before being out of jail very long, and was arrested again and, yesterday morning, was given his choice of paying a fine of $10, or spending ten days in the Goshen jail. He took the latter.

—Mrs. H. B. Levy, of Main street, will have her household goods sold at auction, to-morrow. Sale begins at 10 a. m. A large and elegant assortment. P. F. Kaufman, auctioneer. Everybody come and get bargains.

—Mr. P. H. DeGarmo has resigned as a member of the Excise Board. Mr. T. D. Schoonmaker was appointed to succeed him, but he refused to accept the office.

—Miss Carrie B. Kniffin, daughter of S. Logan Kniffin, of this village, is one of the associate editors of the Normal Review, published by the New Paltz Normal school, at which she is a student. It is a quarterly publication.

—Mr. C. W. Coleman, as assignee of A. J. Gardner, settled with the creditors, yesterday, paying 100 cents on the dollar.

—The Erie pay car was in town, yesterday, and paid off the employes.

IN ANCIENT GOSHEN.

An Elopement That Was "Out of Sight"—Some Heavy Responsibilities.

From a Special Correspondent.

—It is evident that the slow old time way of doing things is becoming unpopular. Whether it is because so much lately has been done by electricity that we are growing impatient of the customs of our forefathers we cannot say, but it is certain that, while we are resurrecting their furniture and china from old nooks and dusty attic corners, we cannot but feel that their ways were not as our ways and that ours are in many respects the best. Take for instance the case of the man who, a short time ago, cast covetous eyes upon his neighbor's wife and, not being able, in simple patriarchal style, to dispose of the inconvenient husband by sending him to the "fore front of the battle," resolved to elope with the object of his affections. Instead of coming for her with post-chaise or mounted upon a gallant steed, like young Lochinvar, when he arrived from the West, he called with a balloon. Few women could resist such combined originality and ardor, and she coyly consented to accompany him. The irate husband arrived upon the scene just in time to see the last of her. Having made up his mind that pursuit was impossible, he went back into the house and left her to the enjoyment of her aerial and clandestine honeymoon. Perhaps, after all, though, the slower methods may have had their advantages, for the lady shortly returned and asked to be taken back, showing that if she had had more time for deliberation she might not have eloped at all, for there can be but little time for reflection while being whisked off in a balloon.

—It has often been laid to the charge of Americans that they are frivolous and flippant, but if the present age of bicycling and the carrying of heavy canes continues, we shall soon lose our light heartedness and become as serious as our English cousins. The look of care on the face of the bicyclist until he or she becomes sufficiently expert to really enjoy the exercise is enough to move one to sympathy, but it is as nothing compared to the weight of responsibility that rests upon the man who carries a heavy cane and is obliged to balance it exactly in the center. It is care such as this that is exhausting many of the young men of our country and will inevitably cause them to grow old before their time. G. H.

OATS ARE CHEAP—AND WHY?

An Old Horseman Throws Some Light on the Matter.

Said an old horse owner: "Oats are lower than I ever before knew them to be in July—they cost less than they did in June, when they ought to cost more, and we are on the tail end of last year's crop and it don't do to feed new oats yet,—not until they are seasoned. Before this somebody has always worked a corner on the market about this time. It would have been so this July, I suppose, if so many horses hadn't been knocked out of service by trolley roads and bicycles. If things don't change, there'll be an awful tumble in the price of oats when the new crop gets to market, for it's a big one."

DAMAGE BY LIGHTNING.

Ice House at Lake Grinnell and a Barn at New Milford Struck and Burned.

The large ice house of the Lehigh and Hudson Railroad, at Lake Grinnell, on that road, was struck by lightning and totally destroyed, on Sunday night or early Monday morning. Seven box cars of the L. and H. road on the switch by the ice house were burned. They were worth $4,000. The total loss is estimated at $30,000.

A large barn at New Milford, near Warwick, was struck by lightning at about the same hours, and it, with its contents, consisting of horses, wagons, harness, feed, farming implements and other articles were wholly destroyed.

Several of the big trees which have graced the Greycourt Meadows beyond the ken of any of our historians, succumbed to the storm Saturday night and "bit the dust."

A Contour Map of the Academy Lot.

At the request of President Wiggins, of the Board of Education, City Engineer Smith has taken the levels and made the measurements necessary for the preparation of a map showing the contour of the Academy lot. The map is to be made for the use of architects who may be invited to prepare plans for a new academy building.

A Busy Day in David R. Miller's Hay Field.

This has been a busy day in David R. Miller's hay field. Mowing machine, hay tedder, hay rake and wagon have all been kept going, and if Mr. Miller only keeps up this gait, he'll be able to begin that "after haying" job of street work on the extension of Highland avenue, the latter part of next week.

A Priest Transferred.

Rev. Father John J. Carr, pastor of the Roman Catholic Church at Chester, has received notice from the Archbishop of his transfer to the church at Williamsbridge. Father Carr's successor has been appointed but we have been unable to learn his name. He has been one of the assistants at the Cathedral in New York.

Another License at Midway.

The Board of Excise of the town of Wallkill met at Askew's hotel, at Fair Oaks, this morning, and granted a license to Bauer & Crist—Messrs. L. V. Bauer and George Crist, in Bauer's Park, adjoining Midway.

Messrs. Wilkin and Terry voted to grant the license, Mr. Gillett voting no.

HOW BEADS ARE MADE.

One of the Oldest and Most Interesting of the Minor Arts.

Chinese are the oldest beadmakers in the world. They have made beads so long that even their historians do not mention a time when the industry was not ancient. And the Chinese today do the work just as their forefathers did, and the styles are exactly the same.

After the Chinese no people are so expert as the Venetians. At present there are more than 1,000 workmen in the island of Murano alone who are engaged in beadmaking. The few manufacturers in other parts of the world have all learned the secret of the craft in Venice. For beadmaking there must be a rope walk connected with the glass factory. A rope walk is a narrow, straight gallery 150 feet long and so situated that the middle is not far from the furnaces in which the glass is melted. The first process is the making of ordinary tubes like those used in almost every drug store. Two brawny workmen with bare, brown arms seize a huge wedge of the "metal," as the molten glass is called, between their blowpipes, and after it has been blown hollow they gradually stretch it out into a long, swinging rope.

When it has been reduced to the proper size for the beads about to be made, it is laid away to cool, after which a workman comes along and in a wonderfully deft manner chips it into fragments of uniform size. Often for small beads these are not much larger than a grain of wheat, but so carefully is the work done that the little cylinders are rarely cracked or spoiled.

The pieces are now picked up by boys and placed in a tub with sand and ashes and stirred up carefully. In this way the holes in the embryo beads are stuffed full, thus preventing the danger of the sides flattening together when heat is applied. They are next placed in a skillet—just such a one as the housewife uses in frying eggs—and stirred over a very hot fire until the ragged edges where the pieces were broken from the tube are rounded, giving the bead a globular form.

As soon as they are cool the ashes and sand are shaken out of them in a sieve, and then they are separated according to size by other sieves. They are taken next to a long table around which a whole flock of boys and girls are sitting. If the glass is colored, as it often is, the piles of beads on the table suggest a rainbow, with every hue, from jet black, through red, green, yellow and blue, up to white.

Each child has a needle and thread, and by long practice the beads are placed on strings with almost inconceivable swiftness. And the children keep an exact count, too, so that the manufacturer knows just how many beads he is sending out. The threads are tied into bundles and shipped to almost every port where a vessel touches —Chicago Record.

BRYANT'S MARRIAGE.

It Was an Ideal Union Between the Poet and His Wife.

Allusion has already been made to William Cullen Bryant's marriage. None could have been happier, no union more nearly an ideal one. Miss Fanny Fairchild was a young lady whose parents had lived on the Seekonk, a stream tributary to the Green river, not far from Great Barrington. Early left an orphan she made her home alternately with her married sisters in that place, and there it was that Bryant met her. Charming in person, sweet in disposition, lively in character, she drew him to her through her sympathy with her cripple sister, his admiration of her beauty and his appreciation of her worth. For 15 years she was the stay and [illegible] What that marriage was to him the brow he wrote his sister Sarah Bryant testifies. Subject to [illegible] he could be allowed only those who could minister to him the very delicate and tender offices of [illegible] Everything [illegible] perfect, [illegible] could command.

For a while Cullen Bryant never wrote a poem and did not print it to [illegible] and take his judgment upon it. [illegible] its success with the public to be precisely proportioned to the inspiration it made upon him." A dear friend of them both has said: "The union between Mr. and Mrs. Bryant was a poem of the tenderest rhythm. Any of us who remember Mr. Bryant's voice when he said 'Frances' will join in his hope that she kept the same beloved name in heaven. I remember alluding to those exquisite lines, 'The Future Life,' to Mrs. Bryant, and her replying, 'Oh, my dear, I am always sorry for any one who does not feel disappointed.' Beatrice and Laura Jeffrey [illegible] of such tributes from Cullen Bryant, for Mrs. Bryant's husband was her poet and lover at 70 as at 17.—A. M. Lawrence in Century.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." HEART DISEASE, like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but Constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and Don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Dyesville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1894, as follows:

"I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones, of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 19 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I have'nt lost a day since. I am 56 years old, 6 ft. 4½ inches and weigh 250lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."

Dyesville, Ohio. SILAS FARLEY.

HOW IT WAS SPELLED.

Alas! She Did Not Know What the Other's Name Was.

She was lank and lean and there was a look of suppressed curiosity in her eyes as they rested on the faces of her fellow passengers. Presently she nudged her companion:

"There comes that Litewite girl," she whispered. "The one that was married about a year ago. Can you remember her name? I can't."

"Why, yes. It was Jennie."

"Nonsense! I can't call her Jennie, can I? I mean her married name. It's on the tip of my tongue, too, but I can't get it. Let me see, I believe it begins with an S."

"Perhaps it is Smith."

"Of course not, silly. I could remember that without trying. Say, she looks as if they were pretty well off. Let's go over and sit with her."

"But we don't know what to call her."

"Oh, leave that to me, I'll manage it—I've a plan that never fails. Why, how do you do? I'm so glad to see you!"

"Why, this is quite a surprise."

"Yes, isn't it? I've been waiting to come to see you for an age, but it is so far that I've kept putting it off. Let me see, what is your new address?"

"Oh, we are in the same place. Why did you think we had moved?"

"Oh, almost everybody did this year. How is your husband? Well? By the way, what do you call him? There is so much talk now as to whether a wife should use her husband's Christian name or"—

"O! I always use his Christian name."

"M—very much better, I'm sure. And his mother—do you call"—

"I call her 'ma,' just as my husband does. Don't you think, I met an old acquaintance today and she had actually forgotten that I was married. Wasn't it horrid of her?"

"Oh, horrid! By the way, how do you spell your new name? We had quite a controversy about it the other day."

A wave of color swept over the other woman's face. "With two gs," she replied in frigid tones, signaling the conductor to stop the car as she spoke.

As she tumbled out a shrill voice from the far corner piped up:

"Why, that was Mrs. Hogg, wasn't it? Her face was so red that I hardly knew her. I wonder why she got out here."—Buffalo Express.

Her Search.

Although much is said of the impertinence of clerks in dry goods stores, there are many models of long suffering politeness among them, and it was one of this large class to whose lips rose a rejoinder which even his diplomatic employer counted as excusable, if nothing better.

Whenever a special sale of any line of goods was announced from the store in question, there invariably appeared on the next morning a woman who insisted upon being shown every article on the shelves, but had never been known to purchase anything.

The store was not a large one, and it had fallen to the lot of one clerk in particular to wait upon this woman again and again.

At last there came a day when a sale of blankets was announced. Early the next morning the woman appeared, and for nearly half an hour the patient clerk displayed blankets until they were heaped high before him. At last he announced that there were no more.

"Very well," said the woman indifferently, taking up her handbag. "I was just looking for a friend."

"Madam," said the clerk in a tone of perfect respect, "if you think there is any chance that your friend is among these blankets, I will go through them again."

Undoubtedly the woman is still pursuing her search in other directions, but that one store has known her no more since that day.—Youth's Companion.

Not Complimentary to English Women.

Alphonse Daudet was not exactly complimentary in his references to English women, of whom he met many in his recent trip to perfidious Albion. "Not only is the English woman not handsome in features," he says, "but there is nothing seductive in her physical form, and, moreover, she is an utter stranger to elegance and good taste. The English woman whom you encounter in Paris, with her flattened down hair and huge feet, differs in no single particular from the English lady of rank whom you meet in salons, on the turf and at the play. It gave me a real thrill of pleasure on reaching Paris to behold our pretty Parisiennes, with their fascinating toilets."—New York Tribune.

Labouchere as a Radical.

The difference between me and some other Radicals is that I am practical, and they are not, while between me and certain others the difference is that I say openly what I think, and that they, like the monkey, keep their thoughts to themselves or have only scraps of utterances for public and another for private consumption.—London Truth.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

It is Injurious To Stop Suddenly

And don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of the use of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about "BACO-CURO." It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with "BACO-CURO." It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An ironclad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars per diem every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Tobacco Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured. I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.

Yours very truly, C. W. HORNICK.

Dear Sirs—I have been a fiend for tobacco for thirty-three years, and during the past two years have used chewing tobacco very extensively. My nervous system was affected considerable. I have often tried to leave off the use of tobacco, but always failed, until I bought three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." I used tobacco at the same time I was taking "Baco-Curo," and after I got through I lost the appetite for tobacco—smoking or chewing. I am enjoying better health now, and consider your "Baco-Curo" the safest, most harmless and reliable remedy for to break the tobacco habit.

Yours truly, JOHN HODDEN,
Postmaster, Roddan, Ill.

Dear Sirs—I have used chewing tobacco very extensively the past thirty years. I tried so-called "No-To-Bac" and other remedies, but without success, until I bought three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." I continued chewing tobacco while taking the preparation and find that the horrible craving for tobacco has left me, and I consider myself cured. I can fully recommend "Baco-Curo" to any person wishing to break themselves of the tobacco habit.

Gentlemen—Last summer I furnished Mr James Reid, of the town of Burnside, Trempealeau Co., with three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." He had chewed tobacco for over forty years and the last year used over sixty-five pounds. He commenced using "Baco-Curo" and one box did not have the effect, when he had used about one-half of the second box, he began to lose his taste for tobacco, and when he had used one-half of the third box he had lost all his appetite for it, and is now entirely cured.

Yours truly, J. C. TAYLOR, Druggist.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

This is to certify that I, William S. Sawyer of Atlantic, County of Cass, State of Iowa, have been an inveterate smoker of tobacco, bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo" Dec. 21, 1894. Began taking same according to directions and can say that I am completely cured of the tobacco habit. "Baco-Curo" is simply wonderful and I recommend it to all who are slaves to the tobacco habit and wish to be cured. I am in perfect health and have not felt so well in years. That terrible craving, which every tobacco user has more or less, has completely disappeared and I feel like a new man, hoping that this may do some one good and lead them to try this wonderful remedy, "Baco-Curo," I remain. Yours truly,

WM. S. SAWYER, Atlantic, Iowa.

Clayton, Nevada Co., Ark., Jan. 28, '95.

Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse, Wis.

Gentlemen—For forty years I used tobacco in all its forms. For twenty-five years of that time I was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit, but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Tobacco Antidote," "Double Chloride of Gold," etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however, I purchased a box of your "Baco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased thirty pounds in weight and am relieved from all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper upon my changed feelings and condition.

Yours respectfully, P. H. MARBURY,
Pastor C. P. Church, Clayton, Ark.

WHAT MR. KRAEMER SAYS OF "BACO-CURO."

ATLANTIC, Iowa, Feb. 4, 1895.

This is to certify that A. F. D. Kraemer, of Atlantic, Iowa, was an inveterate smoker of cigarettes for more than two years.

About eight weeks ago I bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo." I began taking it according to directions, and after taking one and one-half boxes, all the desire for cigarettes left me, and I have had no desire since.

I can heartily recommend "Baco-Curo" to all who are slaves to the cigarette habit or tobacco habit in any form, and are in search of a cure. I had become so under the influence of cigarettes, I could not remember anything; could not study, unless under the influence of the drug, which is death in the end, if kept up.

Cigarettes are sapping the lives out of more boys and young men to-day, than anything that is known to the world. Boys, before it is too late get some of this remedy that killed the craving for cigarettes in me and save your young life. Restore yourself to manhood. You will feel as though you had escaped an awful doom, and you have, when cured by "Baco-Curo," for you feel like a new being. I never felt better in all my life than at this present writing. I did not know what was the matter with me, until informed by the agent. He told me what was the reason I could no do anything unless under the influence of the death-dealing poison found in cigarettes. I did not believe him at first, until he explained the action on the system. Then I began the goods and thank God and all concerned, I am a sound person to-day. Hoping that this may reach the unfortunate cigarette smoker, I remain. Yours respectfully,

F. D. KRAEMER.

TO INCLOSE YALE'S CAMPUS.

The New Phelps Memorial Gateway and Hall Completes the Quadrangle.

The pride of Yale will be the Phelps memorial gateway and hall, now being built, which will be completed about the 1st of January next. The gateway will form the main entrance to the campus, and will complete the Yale quadrangle, which will henceforth be inclosed, much after the fashion of the English universities. The new structure will fill an immediate and urgent need of more recreation rooms and carries out the idea that has lately been gaining favor at New Haven of inclosing the campus. Iron railings will be constructed between the dormitories on the campus which are not contiguous, and the entrance to Yale's classic precincts will be somewhat formal and subject to inspection from a porter or gatekeeper.

The Phelps memorial will be an attractive structure, the highest building in the front row of the campus, its parapets towering to an elevation of 100 feet. It is designed as a tower, flanked by four octagonal turrets. There will be a lofty arch, 16 feet wide and forming the gateway, opening from College street into the campus. The style of architecture is known as the collegiate Gothic. The exterior of the handsome structure will be faced with sandstone from the Long Meadow quarries, similar to that used in Vanderbilt hall.

The memorial will occupy the space between Welch and Lawrence halls. Above the first floor will be four stories, containing 14 classrooms, and also rooms for the Classical club of Yale. It will cost $150,000.

Among the recent notable structures which adorn the Yale campus are Vanderbilt hall, the testimonial of the munificence of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt; the new White building and the new Yale Law school building. The latter as it now stands is but a part of the structure as designed by the architects. The part already finished will be used until sufficient funds have been collected to complete it.

Another structure in process of erection is the building of the Delta Phi secret society, to be known as St. Elmo clubhouse. It will be built of New Haven stone and buff colored brick and will cost $25,000.

Had Heard of Them.

"If you visit Chicago," said Miss Lakeside to the scion of nobility she met at the seashore, "we would be delighted to take you out to see the Alderneys."

"It would please me very much," responded the titled one gallantly. "I believe they are quite a noted family in this country."

"Who?"

"Why, the Alderneys."

"Oh, I'm speaking of papa's cattle," exclaimed the Chicago girl proudly.—New York World.

Hard Luck.

First Man at the Beach (to second arrival)—Say, it's kind of mean of you to come down here. I was here first, and consequently I have a prior claim on the young ladies at this beach.

Second Arrival—A thousand pardons for intruding, but I really had no idea there would be a man here ahead of me. I'll get out right away and try another beach, and it isn't likely I'll run against such hard luck again. G'day.—Roxbury Gazette.

Everything Else Was Up.

Miss Eton—Mr. Gushly, how very unsociable you are! Do bring up a chair.

Mr. Gushly—Aw, thanks awfully, but really I must draw the line at chairs, don't cher know!—Truth.

An Important Question.

If your friends or neighbors are suffering from coughs, colds, sore throat, or any throat or lung disease (including consumption), ask them if they have ever used Otto's Cure. This famous German remedy is having a large sale here and is performing some wonderful cures of throat and lung diseases. John J. Chambers will give you a sample bottle free. No matter what other remedies have failed to do, try Otto's Cure. 5

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured in Three Days.

Morton L. Hill, of Lebanon, Ind., says: "My wife had inflammatory rheumatism in every muscle and joint; her suffering was terrible and her body and face were swollen almost beyond recognition; had been in bed or six weeks and had eight physicians but received no benefit until she tried the MYSTIC CURE FOR RHEUMATISM. It gave immediate relief and she was able to walk in about three days. I am sure it saved her life. Sold by J. F. Mills Druggist, Middletown, N. Y.

A BRUTAL CRIME.

A Nine-year-old Girl Outraged — The Fiend Narrowly Escapes Lynching.

John Burdock, aged thirty-five years, a beer bottler in Honesdale, Pa., very narrowly escaped a lynching, Monday night. He had been arrested for a brutal outrage, perpetrated upon Gertie Garret, a nine-year-old girl, and it was with the greatest difficulty the police were able to protect him from the infuriated citizens.

The child frequently visited her grandparents, at White Mills, going alone by train. Monday morning Burdock started to drive to that place, and invited the girl to ride with him. On the way he assaulted her, injuring her to an extent that renders her condition serious.

THE BATTLE OF MINISINK.

The annual picnic of the Minisink Historical Society was held on the Minisink bat lefield near Lackawaxen, Monday, and was attended by a large number of people, many of whom are descendants of the brave pioneers who fell in that famous battle in defending themselves against the raids of the renegade, Brandt, and his Indian allies.

Interesting addresses were made by Rev. Dr. S. W. Mills, of Port Jervis, the president of the society; Mr. Chas. E. Stickney, editor of the Vantage Recorder; Judge Clarke, of Newton, who spoke in behalf of the Sussex county men, who took part in the battle, and Mr. John W. Johnson of Narrowsburg, to whose patriotic efforts are largely due the building of a monument on the site of the Minisink battle ground.

Perhaps the most interesting address was that of Mr. Stickney, who sought to show the great wrongs perpetrated upon the Indians by the white settlers, who robbed them of their lands and provoked them to begin the war that cost so many lives and so much destruction of property. It was entirely out of the ordinary at these gatherings and created considerable comment.

THE MAIN STREET PAVEMENT.

Corrugated Brick to Be Laid on the East Main street Hill.

Since it has been proposed to pave East Main street with brick the question is often asked if such a paving is practicable on the steep hill between William street and East avenue, for, it is a well known fact that even on level ground, in wet or frosty weather, horses slip and slide a great deal and sometimes fall on brick pavements.

We are informed there is a brick made especially for steep grades, which will be used on this hill. It is corrugated and it is claimed furnishes a foothold for horses. It is probable, however, that in icy weather these grooves will fill up and be of little use.

Low Rate to Utica for the Masons

Major Combs has received from the Grand Secretary a communication which states that a rate of $6 from New York to Utica and return has been obtained from the West Shore road on the occasion of the laying of the corner stone of the Memorial building at the Masonic home. A number of members of the Masonic order in this city expect to be present at the ceremonies.

Burglars Drink Medicine,—Their Only Booty.

Burglars entered the residence of John B. Hall in Newburgh, Monday night, but they were frightened away before they had time to ransack the house. The only thing missed was a bottle of wine in which certain medicine had been mixed. They had drank the entire contents of the bottle, medicine and all.

Compliments For Ontario's Hose Co

The Liberty Gazette, writing of the recent visit of Ontario Hose Co. to that village, says:

The Ontarios are a very gentlemanly lot of fellows and received many compliments from our home people. It is hoped we will have the pleasure of their company each summer for years to come.

Held on Suspicion of Burglary.

Two suspicious looking men, offering to sell ladies shoes at ridiculously low prices in the streets of Newburgh, were arrested and will be held until the authorities in neighboring towns can be communicated with, as it is suspected that the shoes were stolen

On His Wife's Complaint.

John Holly, a mason, was arrested, last night, upon complaint of his wife for disorderly conduct and intoxication. When arraigned, this morning, he pleaded guilty to the charge, and was sent to Goshen jail for thirty days.

GRADUATED AS NURSES.

A number of persons gathered in the Amusement Hall of the State Hospital at 3 p. m., yesterday, to attend the graduation exercises of the class of '95 of the State Hospital Training School for Nurses.

Superintendent Talcott gracefully introduced the Rev. Henry Loomis, who made the opening address to the graduates.

The diplomas were then presented by Dr. C. Spencer Kinney, of the Hospital staff, in a few well chosen remarks.

The following nurses received diplomas, and later the badges:

Misses Gussie Allison, Ella McNamee, Anna Allison, Mrs. Mary B. Williams, and Messrs. Herman Tice, Daniel Martin Lahey and G. H. Swartwout.

Then followed Dr. Talcott's address. The doctor appeared to the best advantage and his address was listened to very closely. The spirit of it was that of the Good Samaritan—do good to thy fellow creatures—and the calling of the trained nurse lost none of its lustre in his hands.

After his address the doctor presented the badges to the graduates. Heretofore the State has supplied these tokens of encouragement to the nurses in care of its wards, but failing to do so this year, Superintendent Talcott had gone to the expense of getting them himself. "This," he said, "I am most willing to do," and then he gave each graduate a badge, thus fittingly closing the exercises.

In the evening a banquet was given the graduating class in Pierson cottage, which was heartily enjoyed by all.

The training school was organized in 1888. Of the fifty-six graduated since then, no less than thirty-six are still in the service of the Hospital.

The course is two years study, attendance at lectures and quizzes and practice at the bed side.

MAN DENIES, WOMAN CONFESSES.

Miss Lindsley, of Downsville, Acknowledges that She and Parson Stinson Sinned in Boston.

Rev. J. O. Stinson, of Downsville, whose escapade in Boston has brought him and Miss Emma Lindsley into unenviable notoriety, has resigned his pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church of Downsville.

While Mr. Stinson, upon his arrival at Downsville, emphatically denied any improper relations with Miss Lindsley, the latter, we learn from a private letter from Downsville, upon her return to her father's home, confessed that all particulars as published in the Boston papers and dispatches were true. She has resigned as teacher in the Sunday School, and has withdrawn from membership in the church.

MAMMOTH SUN FLOWERS.

"Doc" Scudder's Sun Flower Patch in the Holding House Yard.

"Doc" Scudder is very proud of his sun flower patch in the rear of the Holding House. There are a large number of plants all of which are large, but the largest one, which is twelve feet and one inch high and has not commenced to blossom, is a real curiosity. It is growing in a crevice between two flagstones scarcely large enough for the stalk, and the question asked by every one is, how does it get moisture and nourishment sufficient to attain such a growth. "Doc" has not yet divulged his secret of growing sunflowers on a flag stone.

The Delaware County Hay Crop.

From our Up-Midland Correspondent

The hay crop is not the total failure that many would have us believe. It has been mostly secured in good condition, and with but few exceptions is not far from two-thirds of an average yield, and as the quality is excellent, its feeding value will be greater than it is now thought to be. Farmers seldom look on the bright side of anything. RUSTICUS.

A Burglar Frightened Away.

Wm. Smith, a butcher in Pine Bush, was awakened, Monday night, by a noise in his shop, under his sleeping apartments. He aroused another man, who slept on the same floor, and the two went down to investigate. They found that a burglar had been there, having entered through a window, but he had doubtless heard them coming and made good his escape.

Weak and Nervous

Describes the condition of thousands of people at this season. They have no appetite, cannot sleep, and complain of the prostrating effect of warmer weather. This condition may be remedied by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which creates an appetite and tones up all the organs. It gives good health by making the blood pure.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, assist digestion, cure headache. 5

Mr. A. A. Snyder, Supt. Poor Farm, Winnesheik Co., says:—Last winter Mr. Robert Leach used two boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve and cured a large running sore on his leg. Had been under care of physicians for months with-out obtaining relief. W. D. Olney.

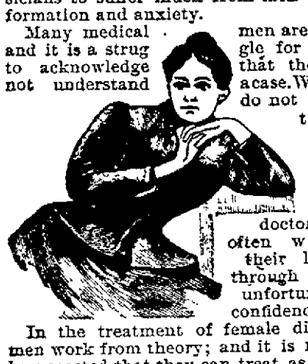
MANY WOMEN SUFFER

FROM LACK OF INFORMATION.

Doctors Are Too Reserved. A Woman Should Be Dealt With Openly.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Women are often allowed by their physicians to suffer much from lack of information and anxiety.



Many medical men are vain, and it is a struggle for them to acknowledge that they do not understand acase. Women do not investigate; they have faith in their doctor, and often wreck their lives through this unfortunate confidence.

In the treatment of female diseases men work from theory; and it is not to be expected that they can treat as intelligently those complaints from which they have never suffered, as a woman can who has made the organism and diseases of her sex a life study.

Women afflicted with female diseases are wise in communicating promptly with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Their distressed condition is due to womb trouble, and their symptoms tell the story.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one remedy that removes the cause, and restores health, courage, and happiness. The druggists sell more of it than all other female medicines. Why?

The following short letter speaks for itself. Mrs. Parker is a very young wife; only twenty-one years old. She was suffering untold misery when she wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. See the result.

Can evidence be stronger than this?

"I deem it my duty to announce the fact to all my fellow-sufferers of all female complaints that your Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me of all the pains and suffering I was enduring when I wrote you last May. I [illegible] your advice to the letter, and it is wonderful."—MRS. CARY PARKER, Little Falls, Minn. Any d[illegible]

WAWAYANDA LODGE, NATIONAL UNION.

Election and Installation of Officers—The New Lodge Room.

Wawayanda Lodge, No. 725, Order of the National Union, at its regular meeting last night, elected and installed the following officers, to fill vacancies: Recording Secretary, John Schindler, Chaplain, John Cameron, Sergeant at Arms, J.E. Young.

The lodge has leased and fitted up Dusenberry's hall, and will hereafter hold regular meetings on the first and third Tuesdays of each month.

New platforms, desks, chairs and other furniture are being put in, and when it is completed it will be one of the finest lodge rooms in the city.

Bold Burglars Leave a Lighted Lamp Which Sets a House on Fire.

Burglars entered the residence of Prof. Lomsche, in Matamoras, Sunday night, and deliberately lighted a lamp in the dining room, set it on the table and helped themselves to eatables and wines. The lamp was left burning and exploded during the night, setting fire to the house. The family was aroused in time to extinguish the flames before much damage had been done.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaverkill, Ill,, says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep a store or house without it." Get a free trial bottle at McMonagle & Rogers' Drug Store.
